Re:     United States v. Saliou Diop, 24 Cr. 468 (JW)

Dear Judge Willis,

I represent Saliou Diop in the above-captioned case. On October 30, 2024, Mr. Diop came before this Court for sentencing on a misdemeanor and was sentenced to six months' probation, with permission to seek early termination after paying $750 in restitution (one-fourth of the total joint and several restitution in the case). On December 17, 2024, following Mr. Diop's payment of the entire $3,000 joint and several restitution, and without opposition from the Government or Probation, the Court granted Mr. Diop's request for early termination.

I write now to request that the Court order the Pretrial Services department to release Mr. Diop's passport and mail it to him, which they can do upon receipt of a court order. Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
